

Flossie Mae Evans

August 10, 1930 - April 5, 2016

Flossie Mae Evans (85) was born in Creston, South Carolina on August 10, 1930, and received her heavenly wings on April 5, 2016. She transitioned peacefully, while asleep, at home.

She was a farm worker in South Carolina. After, she married Willie Evans in Elloree, South Carolina, and then relocated to Brooklyn, New York where she spent most of her life being a homemaker. She then moved to New Haven, CT in 2009.

She enjoyed good food and some of her favorites were fish, stew chicken, black-eyed peas, and butter pecan ice cream. She also loved dancing and music; Gospel, Rhythm & Blues, and Ray Charles were at the top of her list. In August of 2012, she was able to “shake a tail feather” with many of her family members during her 82nd birthday party. It was a glorious time!

She leaves to cherish her memory, two daughters, Ella Mae Walley and Mary Lee Evans; three sons, Willie Evans, Jr., Sam Evans, and Wilbur Evans; one son-in-law, Wilbur Walley, Jr.; two daughters-in-law, Mildred Evans and Ethel Evans; 18 grandchildren, 41 great grandchildren and 22 great-great grandchildren. She was predeceased by her parents, Marcy Thomas and Ella Glover; her husband, Willie Evans; and two grandchildren, Wilbur Evans, Jr. and Lakimba Riley. She will live forever in our hearts.
