“ My condolences to the Smith family, I remember Harold from back in the 80's the Greenwood St. Days when Dennis and Jewel lived across the hall from me and Harold always wanted to hang with us... Private Stock and Snake Bites was our thing. Harold had a hugh crush on me I remember catching him peeking through my window and I had to jack him up and tell him to find someone his age, we always been cool Inspite of that... R.I.P H-Town 😞

“ My deepest condolences to the family. I've known H since long before my twins were born. Our sons practically grew up together and still remain friends. He always called me "SIS" and constantly told me he loved me. I remember giving him my BED back in 2003; however, my greatest memory is how my dog Brittany hated him. As soon as he came over, she would bark non-stop. Finally I would say, "H I love you, but you gotta go cause this dog is getting on my nerves!!!" We could never understand why she didn't care for him. The last time I seen him, he went with me to Westfield Mall and helped me shop with a cast on his leg and in pain. I am deeply saddened by his passing. Life is short, and we never know what tomorrow will bring!! R.I.P. DOLL!!!
