“ There are so many memories to choose from! She made me Auntie Patty and it's a role I will cherish forever. She's the baby that showed me how much I loved kids and from that moment on I knew kids would always be in my life. I was there when Jeremiah was born and the nurse said Helena made having a baby look easy! All she wanted right after was a cigarette 🚬 The nurse was a personal friend of mine and would only let her go out for a smoke if I took her so that's what I did! I smuggled Champagne into the hospital so we could toast his birth with Shannon💕 We sipped champagne out of little styrofoam cups & I remember feeling SO VERY HAPPY! It was such a beautiful moment.
