

Herman Bellamy Jr.

May 27, 1999 - January 15, 2022

Herman Augustine Bellamy Jr. (Little Aug) 22, of Hamden, CT entered eternal rest on January 15, 2022. He was born on May 27, 1999 to Krystal Woodhouse and Herman Bellamy Sr.

“Little Aug” as affectionately referred to by his family, matriculated through the New Haven

Public School System. He ultimately graduated from Eli Whitney Technical High School in 2018, after studying in the automotive trade. As an adult Little Aug worked as a mover for PF Logistics LLC. Many of his moving jobs included relocating military families along the east coast.

Little Aug’s childhood is marked by many wonderful memories with his family.

He was loved by his big brother Tylee. Although the two had different personalities they shared a strong brotherhood.

The two were spoiled with so much and also two peas in a pod. Their mother often dressed them alike.

One of Little Aug’s favorite things was dirt bikes. Anytime he saw older kids in the neighborhood riding one he would motion them to “pop a wheelie”. His fascination with dirt bikes grew so much his parents bought him a dirt bike for Christmas.

There's no denying how sweet Little Aug was. He was well mannered, shy, and had a quiet soul.

He was so quiet that he would sometimes scare his grandmother walking through the house because his footsteps were so light. He was a momma's boy who stuck to his mother's hip.

Many nights Little Aug

would sit in the kitchen with his mother while she cooked. Much of their bonding time occurred in the kitchen. It wasn't until Little Aug became an older teenager that his mother realized that not only were they spending precious moments together in the kitchen, but Little Aug had actually learned to cook. By the time Little Aug was in high school he became such a good cook that his mother and her coworkers would joke about him being able to fry chicken gizzards.

Little Aug was hands down a momma's boy and her protector, but he was the spitting image of his father. Inside and out they were one and the same. They shared the same quiet demeanor, they both loved hard, and had the same awkward sense of humor. At any given time both could be found laughing at their own private joke. Once you were able to get them to let you in on the joke, it was hands down the corniest thing you've ever heard. That was their thing. It was beyond everyone's understanding, but it was a joy to witness. Little Aug was a beloved son, brother, grandson, uncle, nephew, cousin, and friend to many.

To cherish his loving memory Little Aug leaves behind his mother Krystal Woodhouse, father Herman Bellamy Sr., siblings Hernija, Aidyn, and Aston Bellamy, maternal grandfather Scott Diaz, paternal grandparents Lorraine Bellamy and Herman Arrington, maternal aunts Nikki Woodhouse (Keith), Marya Woodhouse, Nataya Anderson, Dawn Taylor, maternal uncle Emeth Solomon, paternal uncles Thesmond and Tramell Bellamy, paternal uncles Tyrell and Tayree Arrington, a god sister Mar'Quasha Petaway, and a host of loving cousins and friends.

Little Aug is predeceased by his beloved brother Tylee Bellamy, maternal grandmothers Andrea Thompson, Verline Woodhouse, maternal great grandmother Mary Ella Thompson, paternal great aunt Valerie Green and paternal uncle Levern Bellamy.

His mother is comforted knowing that as her baby boy leaves here on Earth he is joining his big brother Tylee in Heaven
