

Herman Lynn Dasher

August 17, 1959 - January 29, 2015

Herman Lynn Dasher was born August 17, 1959 to Minister Rosa White and the Late Samuel Dasher.

Herman is a graduate of Wilbur Cross High School and post high school enlisted in the United States Army. Herman honorably discharged from the army and returned to New Haven where he met and married Angela Henderson. From their union, they had two beautiful daughters Brittany and Chynna. Herman worked for a number of restaurants in New Haven. In 1990, Herman relocated to Raliegh, North Carolina and returned to New Haven in 2011. Upon Herman's return, he became a faithful member of Joy Temple.

Herman was infamously known by his nieces and nephews as "Uncle Ice". Always a sharp dresser, Herman made sure he was well dressed no matter where he was going. Herman had a big heart, he was always willing to give a helping hand, a listening ear and even if it was his last he would give it.

Everyone enjoyed spending time with Herman because he always had a good story to tell and a special way to make you laugh.

Although gone, Herman will never be forgotten. Left to celebrate his life, love and sweet memories are his mother and step father Rosa and Bennie White, Daughters Brittany and Chynna, Grand Children Shealah, Unique, Asari, Imyre and Mekhi, Siblings Sarah (Ronald), Della, Joan, Sherri (Tommie), Joel, Betty, Monique, Melinda and Melissa along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ There are so many questions why when the one we love dies. Our hearts feel the pain of knowing we will never see our loved one again. It is hard to find comfort peace and joy when the presence of our loved one is no more. The joy that filled the room and his laughter now just a memory. Death is a fate we all share and love is more powerful than death. The ones lost live in our hearts the rest of our lives and our never gone. To Brittney and Chyna the bond between a father and daughter can not be broken and he will always be by your side. To a wonderful loving son, brother, father... Your family love and miss you forever .
