

Ida Carr

May 6, 1950 - May 3, 2024

Ida Victoria Carr of 215A Chatham Street went from labor to reward on the morning of May 3, 2024. Ida was born to the late Leonard Sr. and Gladys Forbes-Rogers on May 6, 1950 in New Haven, CT.

She was never much for words but always willing to give you her honest opinion. Ida was a loving parent, grandparent, and great-grand parent, and loved spending quality time with younger family members. She was known to everyone in the community as “Aunt Tina.” She would not miss the opportunity to get on the dance for at anything family celebrations, especially a cookout. She especially loved taking care of her community even in through her work as she retired from First Student.

Ida leaves to cherish her memory, Children: Frank Carr Jr., Dionne Mike, Daniel Gibson all of New Haven, CT. Grandchildren: Dean Lee, Cherelle D. Carr, Timothy Miller, Diamond Meluzzi- Davila, Daejay Brown, Nigel Carr, Mar’Quez Ebron, and Makaliah Carr. Great grandchildren: Linden and Ty’zier A. Miller. Sisters: Sharyn Jones, Rosalind Rogers and Esther Rogers. Brothers: Russel Rogers, Peter Rogers, Covell Rogers, Eric Rogers all of New Haven, CT, Daniel Rogers of Prospect, CT., and John Rogers. She was predeceased by a son, Corey Carr (Saundra Carr) of Waterbury, CT; sisters Mary Rogers-Cox, Barbara Ann Rogers, Carolyn Rogers; brothers Stanley Rogers, Lawrence Rogers, Leonard Rogers, Albert Rogers, Frank Rogers; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Ida was loved by family and the medical professionals that cared for her. We want to thank Yale New Haven Hospital, Hospice Care, Inger R. Cowan (special daughter) and Ronnessa Wylie "Daru" (special niece) for their care during her last days. She will be greatly missed.

“ My heartfelt condolence to the Carr and Rogers families. Earth has no sorrow that Heaven can not heal and although your mom is no longer physically here -- in spirit she will continue to live in your heart -- forever cherish your memories. Prayers for your strength during this time.
