“ My condolences to the family. I only found out when the funeral is today and my boss is not here, so I cannot go because I am unable to ask him for the time off since he is not here. Isabelle was a great person and a very efficient supervisor (she worked on my shift in the Postal Service). She will be greatly missed.

“ To my brother James and the entire Brown family. my heart is heavy and there are no to words express how much we all will miss Isabelle. She was not only my sister-in law but she was a true friend and my hanging partner. She will truly be missed.

“ To my dearest brother James.
No words can express the pain that your are going through. My prayer for you is that God will give you the strength to face the coming the days ahead without Isabelle. It's not going to be easy but lean on the Lord and be of good courage and he shall strengthen your heart .

Love, your sister Mary
