“ Zay will always be family of choice to Jenna Lee and myself. He was always the sweetest kid, stubborn, and also so creative. He was in the picture in the paper building the ship we all made for halloween in 2006. He sang in the international festival video and lightened everything he touched with gentle real humanness. I was so proud of him working and being a dad, and a great brother to his family. There are no words for my sadness except we love him and his family as always, for always.
