“ *To the Family of Ja'mese Hudson
To this day we deeply regret the loss of our dear loved one. Words cannot express our feelings for such a loss although Ja'mese has fallen asleep in death, death is not the end result we have a wonderful example of Jesus Christ who has a love for mankind especially his willingness to surrender his soul in our behalf was an ultimate expression of that love which in turn, gave us hope for everlasting life. John 11:38-44. May our hearts be touched and may we feel compelled to follow Jesus example. John 17:3.*

“ My condolences go out to you and your family I know it has been a while since we have last seen each other Talana But words cant explain that no matter how far I am the pain of what you are going through is no less I miss you and I pray to God that he comforts you in this time of need no mother should have to bury their child no matter how young or old.Stay strong God hears your cry and prayers. I am truly sorry for you lost and will be praying for you and your family . (I so miss when we were younger and growing up wish we could go back to those days sometimes because , it was so different) But , we grow up and move along and try not to forget are friends along the way so I am here Friend if you ever need me.
