“ Yashika it's been a long time ago since Eli Whitney, in my original condolences post I mentioned your sons without saying their names which has a level of importance to me, with that said may you, James Jr. and Ja'Kye truly take care, I wish you and your sons so much peace in your hearts, after the rain may the sun shine your way and you all find a way to smile, I wish you enough happiness to keep your spirits alive. Sorry for your loss, my condolences.

“What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch. We may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget”
