

James Williams

September 11, 1945 - November 9, 2022

James T. Williams, 77, son of the late Willie Gary and Eliza M. Cannon, was born September 11, 1945 in Leesville, South Carolina. After an extended illness, on Wednesday, November 9th, he was granted his wings and welcomed to his heavenly home.

Affectionately known as “JT” to friends and family, he attended St Mary’s UFWB Church in New Haven, CT. He was a faithful member of the trustee board and church choir. James (JT) worked various jobs before becoming employed by Mandy Management as maintenance. He worked until his illness prevented him too. JT had many interests but God, fishing, and recreational card playing were his favorites.

James was predeceased by both parents, two wives; Hattie Williams and Cora Williams, three children; Timothy Williams, Theresa Williams and Alfreda Williams and four siblings; Joel Williams, John Cannon, Wilma Cannon, and Phyllis Cannon.

He leaves to cherish his memories nine children: Wanda Marion (Steve) of Hamden, CT; Hattie Williams and Jackie Williams (Cantrice) of New Haven, CT; Dana Dennis (Jessica) of Batesburg-Leesville, SC; Timothy Wilfong, Patrick Wilfong, Tyrell Wilfong of New Haven, CT, Taquan Wilfong of Morristown, NJ; Tamara Wilfong of New Haven, CT and two step-children

Jason Wilfong and Kevin Wilfong (Davina) of New Haven, CT. Three sisters, Mary L. Adams and Annie Dozier both of Batesburg-Leesville, SC; Frances Hendrix of Gilbert, SC. Three brothers Lucious Ellison of Bessemer, Al; Johnny P. Williams (Patricia) and Wilbur Cannon of Batesburg-Leesville, SC. He also has thirtyseven grandkids; sixteen great-grandkids, three step-grandkids and a host of nieces and nephews who will miss him dearly.
