

Jeanette Lyles

August 17, 1953 - May 2, 2021

Jeanette “Jameta” Lyles entered eternal rest on May 2, 2021. She was born August 17, 1953 in Blaney, South Carolina to the late Rebecca Tucker and Edward Lyles.

Jeanette made her way to Connecticut in her early years and attended Lee High School.

She made it her duty to make sure the family was always taken care of. She worked at SNET for several years and she also worked at Yale New Haven Hospital as a certified coder specialist. She attended Albertus Magnus College where she received her Bachelors degree in Business, then later retired.

Jeanette always had ambition to do more and she was willing to teach and help others. She always put “family first.”

Jeanette is survived by her niece, Kynitres Lyles; nephew, Larry Lyles; her partner, Curtis Joyner; close cousins, Dorothy Belton-Bell, Stanley Belton and Harriet Banks; grandnephew, Ramiel Mabery; grandniece, Lara Lyles; family member, Gertrude Boomer; family friends, Debbie Wilkins-White, Dora Vidro-Carr and Mary Cifarelli; god-children, Georgette Wilson, David Wilson and Tamika Wilson; and a host of other relatives and friends.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by two sisters, Carol Faye Lyles and Edma Lyles.

So sad to hear about her death from her niece. I offer my deepest condolence to the family . She was my favorite computer tutor at the Stone Academy and she will be missed. She was a wonderful person. May she continue to rest peacefully in the Lord. Amen.
