

Jebrell Conley

June 22, 1988 - September 19, 2024

God, in His divine wisdom, power, and mercy, called Jebrell Tyrese Conley back home on Thursday, September 19, 2024, at the age of 36. Affectionately known as “Brell” or “City,” Jebrell was born on June 22, 1988, in New Haven, Connecticut. He was the beloved son of Tina Harris and the late Howard Conley.

Jebrell attended New Haven Public Schools and earned his GED in 2008. He was known for his quiet demeanor and passion for basketball. He also earned several certificates, including his OSHA certification. Fondly referred to as “Bottle Boy,” he was seldom seen without a cup in hand. To know Jebrell was to love him, and he will be deeply missed.

As a devoted and loving father, Jebrell cherished his three children, who were the light of his life. He would do anything to bring a smile to their faces. Family meant everything to him, and his commitment to his loved ones was unparalleled.

In addition to his mother, Tina Harris, he is survived by his son, Jebrell Conley Jr., and his daughters, Tyreanna Conley and Brielle Conley (Sherelle Allen). He is also survived by his siblings: Lashaunda Harris, Althea Ragland, Tyisha Lewis, Devell Conley, Dayvonn Conley, Dantae Myers Sr., Michael Mitchell, Travis Cotton, and Travaris Cotton; his best friend, Tyrell Tyson; Goddaughter;

Naziaha Tyson and along with a host of family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his father, Howard Conley; his brothers, Tyrell Harris and Howard Lewis; his nephews, Dontae Myers Jr. and Daeshaun Myers; his sister, Domonique Robinson; and his cousin, Tyrone Harris.

Jebrell shared a special bond with his brother Tyrell, who was more like a father figure to him.

Though Jebrell has gone too soon, his memory will live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.
