

Jeffery Lee Ebron

February 7, 1951 - December 26, 2019

Jeffery Ebron was born in Greenville North Carolina on February 7, 1951 he was the first child of many born to Clara Ebron. He attended and graduated from C. M. Eppes High School in 1969. He moved to NY to live with cousins until moving to Connecticut in 1971 following his mother who had moved here, to continue helping with his younger brothers & sister. Jeff was very family orientated, loving to spend time with his entire family.

Jeffery was a hard worker and role model for his other siblings. He was a long-time employee of Pratt and Whitney, working there for 42 years before retiring. Jeff enjoyed playing basketball & poker. Jeff liked the Lakers, he was a Diehard Dallas Cowboys Fan and his favorite college team was the Tarheels Men's Basketball team and yes, he also enjoyed having a few 'cold ones' while watching the games with friends! He enjoyed cooking and eating oxtails, pasta, and other food items, and he also liked talking politics. Anyone that knew Jeff knew he loved to keep his cars in good running condition and washed them every week, but most importantly he loved his Mama, "hint, hint his ringtone".

Jeffery Ebron entered eternal rest, Thursday morning December 26, 2019, at Yale-New Haven Hospital. He leaves behind to cherish his memory one daughter Kimberly Woods-Ebron (Hamden CT), longtime girlfriend Paulette Douglas (New Haven), six siblings, Jerry Ebron (Jan) (Bowie Maryland),

Terrence Ebron (West Haven CT), Alvin Ebron (New Haven CT), Roosevelt Ebron (New Haven CT), Jacqueline Ebron (New Haven CT), and Mike Ebron (Sheryl)(West Haven CT). He was predeceased by his grandmother, Mattie E. Robinson, mother, Clara Ebron and his sister Frankie Ebron. He also leaves one granddaughter, Taylor Collins and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
