“ Edward ledbetter my memories with my brother Jeff AKA PC well we were childhood friends and from until his last day has always been a true friend and brother when my life was turned upside down pc was always there for never had any thing bad to say about even when i was at my worst. I could always count on pc and he could always count on me no matter what it was about.man im having a real hard time right now it really hurts to know im not going to see my brother my best friend anymore.im really lost for words one thing i can say is everyone had love for pc because he was truly a good hearted person and a good father to his kids and was good to his baby mommas lol. It saddens my heart that i wont be able to make it to his funeral but I really cant see my brother in a casket. So im just going to keep all the good times we had together. Rock view raised what a wonderful time we had growing up. To his family and mine i send my deepest sympathy. May God continue to keep us together. Amen love you brother from another mother
