

Jerry Edwards

August 11, 1955 - January 19, 2019

Jerry Edwards died peacefully at Yale New Haven Hospital on Saturday, January 19, 2019. He was born in New Haven, CT, on August 11, 1955 to Arlease Gibbs Edwards and the late Lee Edwards. Jerry worked as a machinist at Pratt & Whitney for 15 years, U.S. Repeating Arms for 15 years, and various secondary employers. He was a member of Pitts Chapel UFWB Church in New Haven, CT. Jerry enjoyed spending time with his family and friends. He loved his children and grandchildren immensely and would do anything in the world for them. He was a very outgoing person who loved to dine, joke around, and make everyone laugh. He leaves to cherish his memory, his loving wife, Sheree Atkinson-Edwards, one son, Parrish of Ansonia, three daughters, Qijana, Chastiny (Michael), and Jasmine, nine grandchildren, one sister, Shante, a host of nieces and nephews, and many other relatives and friends. He was predeceased by his seven siblings, Norman, William, Bruce, Christine, Ethel, and Melissa.

“ To the Edwards Family
Me and Jerry go way back (Old School 70' & 80'), Jerry has always been a true gentlemen to me, respectful & funny and my friend, even though I haven't seen him in a while. Jerry carried a baby picture in his wallet of my son (Freddie white Jr.) who is now 36 years old, my son told me every time he would see Jerry he would pull it out and show him....Lol. As I look at his picture, I think about all the good times we had back in the day, and those memories will be the ones I carry in my heart. God knows best, he makes no mistakes. Wishing you peace to bring comfort, courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your heart.
