

Jimmie L. Mooring Jr.

December 11, 1957 - July 24, 2019

Jimmie Lee Mooring, Jr., age 61, born December 11, 1957, left this earth early on the morning of Wednesday, July 24, 2019. He was the son of the late Jimmie Lee Mooring, Sr. and the late Rubella Brown Mooring Jackson.

Jimmie graduated from Hamden High School in 1976. In high school, Jimmie was a straight “A” student. Jimmie loved school and various subjects. Jimmie went on to University of Connecticut to further his education, however due to an unfortunate incident he was forced to return home.

Jimmie worked various jobs over the years and was known throughout the city and surrounding areas. You could always find Jimmie in his community interacting with everyone. Jimmie loved people and there was no such thing as a stranger. Jimmie loved socializing and conversing about all topics. He was friendly to everyone.

As much as Jimmie loved people, he loved his family even more; and his family loved him the same. Jimmie was affectionately named “Jimbo” by the family and in return he gave nicknames to various family members as well. Jimmie always brought joy and laughter in every conversation he was a part of. Jimmie loved learning and recently began piano lessons. He left his family with a gift, a song written for him titled “Jimmie Get Well”.

Jimmie leaves to cherish his memory, a son, Edwin Peter Green (Jihane) of Durham, NC; a daughter, Denise Green of Greenboro, NC; three grandchildren, Shani and Timothy Harrington of Greenboro, NC and Mark Green of Durham, NC; two sisters, Amina Mooring-Moye of New Haven, CT; and Evelyn Mooring-Howard of San Antonio, TX; three brothers, Ralph (Robin) Mooring, Wayne Jackson and Vincent Darden, all of New Haven, CT; an aunt, Ann (Joseph) Bernard of Newark, NJ; five nieces, five nephews, four great-nephews, three great-nieces and a host of cousins and friends. He was predeceased by a brother, Winton Keith Jackson.

The streets of New Haven won't be the same without that "Jimbo" lean and walk! Jimmie will truly be missed by all.
