“ Staying up late laughing, playing cards and talking, Going out for breakfast. We'd snow sled with Edward on the hills of my yard on Forest Rd. Lots of laughter that winter. We talk regularly by phone no mater where i am in the world. We spent a lifetime together my cousin, friend , sister. We talk on your way to and from Dialysis. I loved to answer the phone and you're calling. Soooo much love. You were planning on visiting me in San Francisco this week. God plans best. See you when i get there. RIP.

“ My fondest memory of Jo was the first time we met in 1990. I was waiting for the school bus and she walked up and asked me if I could be friends with her daughter. From that day on and ten years forward I spent more time in her home than my own. She was a mother to me. I will always love and dearly miss her.

“ To Dortche-Random Family: sending condolences on passing of Joanne always had 😊 smile or jokes about old days. She worked during elections in the voting polls, had fun with her at casino with her mom's, at class reunion & Eastern Circle reunion talked about those crazy times in the circle. May her soul Rest In Peace with family & friends
