“ This really hurts.
I met Greg when I was living on Edgewood Ave back in early 90's
He was such a sweet guy. I remember having some issues with someone and he came to bat for me. Every time he saw me walking, he would give me a ride in his truck. I can still hear him say.. Hey gurl..what up? I will miss him. Condolences to his entire family!
Rest my friend, rest

This 1 really hurts we grow up since we were babies and was around each other every day. We were more like brother and sister not cuzins. It's very hard 💔 on me because it was a big surprise because I just seen him few days ago in the hospital and we talked 💔 I said you're going to be alright cuz and said I don't no I said you will and I love 💔 you and he said I love 💔 you too. 1 thing I can say Greg loved 💔 him some me and I loved 💔 me some Greg. We was tight and if I'm am out somewhere he says gurl where you going I said home he said let Auntie Lu know where you at. So what he said come, I'll take you home and as we got older we still had that some bond 💔 he always came to see and surprise me.
