“ John was my father figure. John encouraged me to play football at age 12 in which I continued to play into college. John gave me the nickname “ The Crusher”. To credit John today for the man I turned out to be. When my mother passed away he and Liz was there at the funeral home helping me in making arrangements. I could go on and on telling stories about John because he was that special , caring and loving kind of guy. I will deeply miss John and that smile and laugh of his. Rest in Peace John , you will be truly missed!!!!

“ Mr. Sylvia was a good man and a man that was known in the Community and in the neighborhood of Canton Street...My prayer is for the strength of his family and that the ways that he helped many of us "kids" of the community would never remain silent but always speak. I remember when I was in my early 20's and I had to go to lockup downtown, New Haven...I was innocent and when he saw my face, he said "that guy doesn't belong here...release him", and I went home. I'm sure many others that grew up in West Haven and even others that have met him along the way, have good memories to share! Kevin (Czar), Butch and Toni, you're in my prayers, for sure. Again, your father was a good man. May The God of Heaven comfort you all. (In Jesus' Name, Amen). Apostle Allen E. Coleman, Jr. (which his kids know me by my middle name: "Eroan")
