“ Pat, "Brooksie", & family, Our condolences to you during this season of translation for JR. Times like these are never easy on anyone; but know that there are hosts of family and friends covering your family with prayers. Pat, may the Lord God continue to encamp His angels about your family, and His Holy Spirit BE your comfort. Most of all, know that Jesus is walking with you and carrying you through this... "Footprints in the Sand". Talk to Him, He is ready and willing to listen as you share your heart. Surely, there is so much for you to share with Him.

We love you all very much... Let us know what we can do for you and the family. Remember to look to the hills because your help comes from God. (Psalm 121)
