

Julane Kay Davis

December 17, 1958 - December 15, 2017

Relieved of her earthly duties of a job well done Julane Kay Davis entered into eternal rest on December 15, 2017. Daughter of Roosevelt Davis, Sr. and Catherine Davis was born on December 17, 1958.

Julane was educated in the New Haven school system and continued her education becoming a dedicated and loving professional in the nursing field. Her love and dedication was evident in her children Shawn, Nikia and Kimberly; grandchildren, Neja, Taquasia, Khalil, Amir, Renea, Tierra, Sarai and Shalom; sisters, Rosetta, Susan, and Arnethia; brothers, Roosevelt Jr., Mark and Jonathan; lifetime friends Linda and Gloria Ivory and Lorraine Moore, and a plethora of family and friends. She was predeseaced by her brother Randal Davis.

Trustworthy, strong and down-to-earth are only a few words to express the kind of woman we all have known her to be. Confident with a beautiful smile, joyful spirit and genuine heart is what will be truly missed. Her dedication and love for her family was so exemplified as a mother and grandmother holding the family unit together.
