

Karen M. Johnson

December 24, 1962 - September 20, 2022

Karen Johnson entered into eternal rest on September 21, 2022 at Yale New Haven Hospital. Karen was born on December 24, 1962 to the late Priscilla Johnson and Johnny Green. From infancy Karen was raised by her step-father The Late Charlie Moore, Jr. Karen was the second oldest of five children.

Karen spent her youth in the Hartford Public School System before relocating to New Haven in 1976. Karen Johnson attended James Hillhouse High School. Karen obtained an Associate Degree in Early Childhood Education from Gateway Community College in 2018. Karen was a Licensed Certified Nurses Assistant devoting many years to this field.

Karen was a member of Church on The Rock for several years. She was very talented, gifted and an extraordinary woman of countless things. Most cherished hobbies included – her singing, going to the casino, writing and story-telling which led her to creating and releasing a children’s book called “BaBa the Farmer”. Karen was a devoted community activist. She enjoyed spreading love and light to all she encountered. She had a contagious laugh and smile that will forever be remembered.

Karen leaves to cherish her memories her only son Terrell Johnson, her sister Adrienne Nails of Manchester, CT, brothers Keith Johnson of New Haven, CT, William Johnson of St. Louis, MO and Joseph Johnson of Hamden, CT, two grandchildren Ta’Mari Johnson and Demar Glover and a host of aunts, nieces, and nephews.

The family of Karen Johnson wishes to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to each of you for your prayers, cards and other acts of kindness shown to us during our difficult time. Your words were heard, your prayers were felt and your deeds were remarkable.
