“ To the Gomes Family. I was in deep disbelief upon hearing about the passing of buddy. I'm so sorry for your loss. May Yahuah give you all the strength to get through the days ahead and comfort you in these trying times. Buddy was such a down to earth, fun and spoke his mind type of person. He will truly be missed. Riparadise Buddy From Lawanda & Family.

“ I like to express my Sincere Condolences to the Gomes Family...But Special Love to My Goddaughter NeShell Lucky, for the last 5 years You an your Uncle Buddy bonded and became tight as glue. You guys fussed an fought but it was done in ALL Love NEVER hatred, envy or jealousy but Love. And tho many may Never understand you two...Uncle Buddy loved U Shell and you loved him! Y'all looked out for each other, When he opened his door to you 5yrs ago...you made sure food wz cooked, kept the house up, helped with whatever he needed and he did the same for you. Uncle Buddy Always gave unsolicited advice and sometimes it wz good and other times it wz jus him venting...Sometimes I would tell him he need to take his own advice about certain situations he wz enduring! One thing he wz Big on saying...My Door is Always Open, it's up to You to Come In!!!

NeShell Lucky and Chuck Culbreath Uncle Buddy Loved Y'all like a Daughter and Son...He took Pride in the way he helped both of You and felt like yall were 1 of his Greatest Accomplishments cause at times...You two were a piece of work...His work is Done...RIP Now Uncle Buddy
