

Kelvin T. Thorpe

May 19, 1958 - June 13, 2021

Mr. Kelvin Thorpe was born May 19, 1958, to the late Carl and Alma Thorpe of New Haven, Ct. Saturday night on June 12, 2021, at the Arden House in Hamden, Ct. God called his servant, Kelvin from labor to reward. With heavy hearts, we must submit to his divine will.

Kelvin was a gentle giant with a kind spirit always willing to help others. He was known to many as a "Horse" to those who were very close to him. Kelvin attended James Hillhouse High School where he received his high school diploma. Kelvin has various jobs moving people and helping to fix up houses; one of his favorite things to do was painting houses, which he enjoyed. Kelvin attended various churches and was received into the family of God-In-Christ by the way of his baptism on Oct 1, 2013.

Kelvin was a devoted son to his late mom (Alma). He leaves to mourn his loss: His longtime girlfriend, Shirley Wilson of New Haven, Ct; his brother Kenneth Thorpe (Sharon) of Orange, New Jersey; two sisters Phyllis T. Gregory of East Orange, NJ and Ramona McDowell of New Haven, Ct. and his very close niece Chavone Pitt of New Haven, Ct; a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces and nephews, and one Great great-niece, and a very close cousin (like a brother) Thomas Ferguson of New Haven, Ct. Along with many Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, and Friends. He was predeceased by his mother and father, Carl and Alma Thorpe, and his sister, Robin E. Thorpe.
