

Keron Troutman

November 9, 1985 - April 8, 2025

Keron Marquis Troutman, affectionately known as “Key To The City”, was born November 9, 1985, in New Haven, Connecticut to the late Joseph James Troutman and Arnetta Troutman. Tragically left this earth on April 8, 2025, at the age of 39.

Keron primarily grew up and was educated in the Hamden School System playing sports through Hamden Pop Warner Football and Hamden Fathers basketball leagues. He graduated from Hamden High School where he was a proud member of the football team. After graduating high school, he worked several jobs before finding his niche working with his hands at Charlie by Michael Zink where he was part of the dream team which had the responsibility of producing various photo shoot sets for the company. At the time of his death, he was also in school to be an automotive technician at Porter and Chester.

As a devoted and loving father, Keron cherished his three children, who were the light of his life. He would do anything to bring a smile to their faces. The youngest of four boys, family meant everything to him, and his commitment to his loved ones was unparalleled. Keron was known for having a bright smile and a big heart and he had a willingness to help anyone he could when called upon by family and friends.

Keron leaves behind to cherish his memory, his three children Kanai Troutman, Logan and Denver Gray who were his pride and joy. His loving mother Arnetta Troutman, brothers Cinque Troutman (Jennifer), Joseph Troutman and James Troutman and grandmother Annette Baldwin. He also leaves a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins, including a special cousin/sister Latoya Baldwin.

He was preceded in death by his father Joseph James Troutman, paternal grandparents Ernest and Joanne Troutman and his maternal grandfather Frank Baldwin. Nephew Tyseem Troutman and cousins Rasheem Walston, James Dudley Jr. and Kimberly Troutman.

Keron's memory will forever be cherished by all who loved him. He will live in our hearts and in the many lives he touched with his warmth, kindness, laughter and smile.

💕🙏 My dearest & forever Friend ARNETTA,
There aren't enough words to express my condolences to you & your family at this difficult time. In 1985 💕GOD💕 blessed you with your baby boy & gave you 39 years to live,, love, enjoy & celebrate his life. Cherish your memories of him & remember he will always be with you in spirit. 💕GOD💕 has him in a safe place where no more harm can come to him. He'll be watching over you everyday of your life while on earth, until you meet again.
Take care my dear friend, may 💕GOD💕 bless you with the LOVE, comfort & peace that can only come from HIM. ☐ YOU!!!
