“ My heart is broken. This doesn't seem real. I hate that we lost touch and I'm just now finding out. I will never forget all the things we did. All my bucket list things you helped me check off. There are so many things that I didn't get to say, but I'll tell you all about it when I see you again. May you rest in Heavenly peace.

“ *My Heart felt Condolence to His Family. May GOD give u the strength to go through this Pain.
I have never met Kevin in person but we talked a lot on here and Phone and I always admired Him, how he can make a bad situation look good...
Find a solution out of any problem..
He made me laugh I loved Him for that. He always told me to hold my head up no matter how bad things have gotten...
My Friend I will truly MISS YOU may u dance with the Angels now R.I.P*

“ Kevin had a larger than life personality. I met him while worked at BCBS and he was someone you couldn't not forget. He always had a smile and nice words to say to anyone who would listen. He was a proud husband and family man. I consider it a blessing to have been able to call him my friend. Rest in Peace, Kevin. You are home with our Lord. Sending hugs, thoughts and prayers to your wife, children, and family who will be reunited with you in the kingdom of Heaven.

“ Dear Kelley, Amanda, Kevin, Alexandra & Kyle-

I know you all will gain strength and hope during this time of sorrow. I know how difficult it is to lose a loved one suddenly and it is not a pleasant feeling. Just remember, your husband & Dad, Kevin is in a better place where there is no pain, sorrow or suffering.

He will always remain in your thoughts and memories so dwell on these things.
