“ Dear Kimberly,

I am truly going to miss our godly conversations and especially your faith. I know you are now in heaving singing with the angels and saying "how ya like me now."

P.S. I miss our daily prayer meetings at noon day prayer!

“ To the family of Kim Murray, my heart was saddened when I heard of Kim's passing. Kim had a heart of gold and was such a good person. I counseled her on many an issue, and sometimes she helped me with the words she said. Her strength and faith in the Lord was unwaivering and now she is at peace. Children know that your mother loved you all very much. You are in my prayers...God bless you.

“ I send my deepest condolences to you Tamika, Nyjour and James. Your mom loved you dearly despite your changes you may have put her through. I admired her for that love. She will be greatly missed. As you are shocked in her leaving you, remember all that she wanted for you, which is the best that God would have for you. Please keep your heads up and cry whenever you want. Stay close to each and don't let people and money divide you. She wouldn't want that for you.

I miss her. Love you always, Sis. Teresa & family
