“ I’m still in shock over Kim’s passing. She was my paraprofessional at Lincoln Bassett, where we quickly became friends. She was always happy and had a way of making our students feel comfortable and confident in her ability to understand their issues. They knew she truly loved them. She shared photos and stories about her kids and grandkids, and you knew, from her gleaming smile and sparkling eyes, she was a proud mother and even prouder grandmother. As a Christmas gift for her and her cousin Gwen we attended a dinner and R & B performance at Aria’s in Prospect and had a ball. We also planned a Left, Right, Center game night at the Elk’s Lodge, celebrated her birthday and attended school and other activities. I’m the person who made the “Church Punch”, that she loved so much, whenever she requested it. After I retired, she too decided to leave, however we always felt connected whenever we did talk or see each other, like we never left each other’s side, but I missed our daily interactions. She loved worshipping the lord, St. Matthews, her family and friends. My memories of Kim and everything we shared will be forever embedded in my heart ❤️ Sending my sincere condolences to her family, friends and anyone who had the pleasure of knowing her.

“ My beautiful beautiful Niece/little sister my heart is so broken 💔 I am not understanding. I know we aren't suppose to question God because he doesn't make any mistakes and it's his wil, but I'm asking you God to please give me the peace that passes all understanding, because this one is really hard for me to understand. This wasn't just a Niece this was my little sister, someone that I called everyday just to tell her how much I loved and appreciate her for caring and loving me so much. Very respectful and caring soul. I always looked forward to coming to my second home with her when I come home to Connecticut. RIP 🙏 MY BEAUTIFUL ANGEL UNTIL I SEE YOU AGAIN.
