

Larry Johnson

December 13, 1962 - February 27, 2025

Larry Johnson was born to the late Lillie and Henry Johnson on December 13, 1962 in New Haven, CT.

On February 27, 2025 Larry succumbed to an untimely passing, surrounded by family. He attended the New Haven public school system.

Larry worked in construction for many years until he ventured out to do what he loved, taking care of children. “LJ” or “Wheeta-Weet” as he was affectionately called continued to make himself helpful to his siblings as the family babysitter. Where he became a responsible caregiver, providing safe supervision, and occasional trips to the local parks. He gave his nieces and nephews special nicknames that he saw befitting to match their personality. His favorite dish was pasta, of any kind, from spaghetti to lasagna to macaroni. He cooked them all.

To know him was to love him. Larry never met a stranger; he carried such a friendly disposition to the whole neighborhood. He loved and was equally loved in return by anyone he came in contact with. “LJ” made friends throughout the community during his walks as he collected cans and bottles during his spare time. He was such a comedian; expressing jokes and sharing laughter to brighten people’s day. “LJ’s” presence would light up a room. His laughter was infectious to everyone, and was the “life of the party” at every event.

Besides his parents Lillie and Henry Johnson. He was preceded in death by his sister, Easter Johnson. Brother in laws; Milton Vereen Sr & Johnny Gilmore Sr. Nephews; James Johnson Sr., Johnny Gilmore Jr., and George “fatman” Johnson.

Larry leaves to cherish his memories. His daughter Monica Little of New Haven, three grandchildren Keon, Christian and Journie of Bridgeport. Eight siblings Ronald Chandler and Jeanette Johnson of North Carolina, Henrietta Vereen, Jacqueline Barnes, Christina Johnson and Frankie (Regina) Johnson of New Haven, Helen (James) Townsend of East Haven and Marvin (Annette) Johnson of South Carolina and a host of nieces and nephews and family and friends.

Larry “LJ”-”Wheeta Weet” Johnson will be greatly missed.
