

Larry Nalley

Larry E. Nalley, 63, of 355 Ferry Street, New Haven entered into eternal rest on January 16, 2010. Born in Alderson, WV on July 12, 1946 to the late David L. and Hattie (White) Nalley. Larry was a veteran of the United States Army; he served his country during the Vietnam War. He was employed by Atlantic Wire Company and Rose Hill Poultry in Branford before retirement. Larry was working towards his Christian Worker's Certificate at the Church of Christ Bible Institute in Hartford. Larry was a devoted husband, father and grandfather who loved reading the Bible and poetry. He was a Sunday School Teacher and faithful member of Straightway Church of Christ in New Haven, CT. Larry was the loving husband of 17 years to Sarah (Peterson) Nalley. He will also be greatly missed by son, Lamar E. Nalley, Sr. (Tracie), stepdaughter, Roberta Hayes of New Haven, CT, 5 brothers, Terrance and Steve Nalley of WV, Howard Nalley of Long Island, NY, Joseph Nalley of Garden City, NY, Nathaniel Nalley of Concord, NH, 2 sisters, Elizabeth Nalley of Covington, VA and Nancy Nalley of Rowlesburg, WV; 3 stepbrothers, Dwight Tanner of New Rochelle, NY, James and Charles Tanner of New Haven; 4 stepsisters, Gloria Jeanne and Deborah Tanner of Richmond, VA, Ann Griffith and Alice Bragg of New Haven; 13 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren of New Haven, and several nieces, nephews and cousins. He was predeceased by brother, Roy Nalley and sister, Rachel Nalley. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven with full military honors. Condolences can also be sent to the Nalley Family at 355 Ferry Street, #702 New Haven, CT 06513.

Tribute Wall

“ Larry Nalley

October 09, 2023 at 06:14 AM