“ Leroy was a wonderful Father to my Daughter Tishena Davis. When we moved to Florida she was only 9 years old and every year he called in June to ask when was her flight to New Haven to spend the summer with him. They were close and he was part of her everyday life and our family and will be deeply missed. My prayers go out Linda, his two remaining sons, his sisters and brother, nieces and nephews. He is in such good company with our Lord we were all blessed to have him in our life.

Regards,

Sandy

My Dad was a smooth and humble individual. He always had a nickname for all of us kids. The name he gave me was Winky 🤪, my brothers nicknames were Jake and Buggy and my mom's nickname was Weezy 🤪. I miss him tremendously! 🥰 Love and miss u Dad! The Davis's forever! 🙏❤️ Thank u for your kind words Ms. Sandy.
