“ To the MAYES AND McCLAM family & sis.mayes also.Glofesta,Linda, and the sons, I just want to send my deepest condolences to all of you. since I was a little girl starting out in our bishops church I can say that we did grow up together singing on the choir and doing other things in the church too. I can say I had this hand dealt to me with my mother early in my life and then my father also, which was deacon jones. it was your father and mines holding the deacon seat down but now they are resting, at peace and thats the way we want our parents to be not still here suffering from what this world has to give. just look to the hills from which comes your help because can't nothing get you though this time but the Lord and the closeness of your family. I will keep you all in my prayers and hope to see you soon, I will be working and cannot attend but my thoughts are with you on tommorrow so please what ever you do lean on the LORD for understanding and guidance now and forevermore love always MS.DAWN ARANJO.
