

Lillian Mae Joyner

September 29, 1950 - October 10, 2023

Lillian Mae (Landry) Joyner passed away peacefully on October 10, 2023 after a longtime sickness. She was born to the late Lucy Landry on September 29, 1950.

Lillian received her education in the state of Louisiana at Greenville Park High School in 1968.

Lillian was a Direct Care Support Professional at Oak Hill where she provided extraordinary care for the mentally disabled for many years.

Lillian was a giving person. She enjoyed eating and cooking seafood, traveling, and being surrounded by her grandkids. Frankie Beverly Maze "Before I Let Go" and "Fire and Desire" by Rick James and Tina Marie were her favorite songs. Her favorite color was royal blue.

Lillian departed her life with the hope of seeing her family again in the resurrection as she worshiped Jehovah as a Baptized Jehovah's Witness.

Lillian was predeceased by her mother, Lucy Landry; grandmother, Blanche Johnson; twin brother, William Landry; brother, Benjamin Smith (sister-in-law Aileen Smith); sister, Blanche Jones; nieces, Antonette and Lisa Smith; and her dog Zeus.

Lillian was survived by her husband, Arthur Joyner; children, La-Donna Bigelow, Arnisha Felix (Emmanuel Felix), Eric Lewis-Joyner and Erica Joyner; grandkids, Xavier Bass, Jordan Bass (Jeffrey Guzman), Sarai Lillian Luna, Miguel Chaparro, Aria Lewis-Joyner, Zaniah Joyner, Zamari Santiago, Anah'Lea Lillian Amrozowicz, and Jai'Eri Lewis-Joyner; sister, Alfreda Odozi; nephews, Benjamin Smith Jr. and Tyrone Jones; nieces, Cynthia Hines, Bettina Jones, Monique Waldon and Deidere Farley; God kids, Graig and Kevin; really good friends, Valorie Severin, Carmen Ayala, Karen Reid and Daria Dorst; and a host of great nieces and nephews, cousins, and friends
