“ To the entire Gamble/Nelson Families, I can unequivocally say that Aunt Lillie had a heart full of love and caring. She did not hesitate to testify her life in Christ. Her essence of empathy for her family that always resonated with me, was how her often Flew Home to Kingstree to visit with the Family.

“ I remember Aunt Lillie as someone who loved the Bible and her church. But the one thing I remember most, that would always made me laugh, was a phone conversation aunt Lillie and momma had years ago...

some crook had stolen aunt Lillie's car and one day she and Weez were out driving... all of a sudden, they saw her stolen car drive by and auntie shouted "Get him, Weez!" And the car chase began... I was laughing so hard I never did find out if they caught him but just the thought of the 2 of them driving thru the streets of Connecticut was enough to always bring a smile to my face.

She's and Weez are together again and they don't have to worry about no car thieves in Heaven 🙏🙏

“ Grandma Lillie 🤔😭💔 I really was hoping this was a dream... when I came to Connecticut in June I made sure I seen you and you were so happy that I came to see you... you smiled and you held my hand, I told you before I left to return back to Charlotte that I would come back too see you and I made it my business! I am gonna miss you 😭 but I know you're no longer suffering and you're resting now 😊👉

Love Always Ronnie (Tai'Ronda) your granddaughter
