

Lisa Smith

October 10, 1965 - December 30, 2022

Obituary:

Lisa Smith passed away peacefully with her family by her side on December 30 2022. She was born in New Orleans, LA on October 10, 1965 to the late Aline Smith and Benjamin Smith Sr. She was predeceased by sister Antoinette McMiller.

Lisa was partially educated in the New Orleans Public School System until January 1974 when herself and family relocated to New Haven CT. She finished her Education in the New Haven Public School System where she graduated from James Hillhouse High School in 1984.

Lisa worked for Yale New Haven Hospital, St Raphael Campus for over 32 years. She was a Sterile Processor Instrument Technician until her passing.

Lisa was affectionately called Momma Lisa by her older siblings though she was the baby because she acted like she was Momma. She was also known and affectionately called baby sista as well.

Lisa enjoyed traveling and doing sibling trips together, the four of us. She enjoyed going to the Casino. She loved life and her family. Her favorite sayings were "Hi Sweetie" "Okay Sweetie". She was known for her kindness, thoughtfulness, generosity, she was a giving person, always thinking of others.

Lisa leaves to cherish her memories, sister Cynthia Hines, brother Benjamin Smith Jr, her loving brother-in-law Ronnie Hines Sr, her nephews Ronnie Hines Jr and Shaun Hines, niece London Marie Smith, and great niece Skye Hines. Host of aunts, uncles and cousins.

“Always And Forever We Love You Momma Lisa, Baby Sista and Aunt Lisa”,
You Are Always Forever In Our Hearts ♥

“ *Missing you my friend Lisa Smith. Always worried and concerned about you co workers well being and checking up on all of us when you notice we weren't at work. When we would check up on you about anything you would just say that you were OK. Never wanting to put your issues on anyone, because you put everyone's welfare above your. A REAL TROOPER. ❤️❤️🙏🙏😭😭 You are and always will be missed Lisa. We love you sis. REST IN THE HANDS OF THE LORD ANGEL. Peace and blessings to the Smith family. FROM RAY ALLEN AND YOUR SPD FAMILY.
