“ Dear uncle Lorenzo, I am your first nephew an this really hit me hard to learn of your passing. I remember granddad told when I was in my 20's that you should always (Hope for the best in life but prepared for the worst) he told me this when I was sitting by his bed side when he was in the hospital as I tried to live by those words of wisdom, I was not at all prepared for this to have happened. But when I church the Pastor gave a sermon GOD calling on his angels an I truly believe he called called on you to stop you suffering an pain. I just want to say it have been the great honor having as my uncle for 57yrs. of my life, you always remain in my heart. Love you uncle my you now

“ Dear uncle Lorenzo, I am your first nephew I remember when I was a little boy and you use to baby sit me and my brother an teach us your karate moves and started us watching Bruce Lee movies. You always been in my life in made sure I was doing ok an I will never forget that as long as live I just don't understand why GOD called on you so soon, The only reason I came up with is that maybe he needed another (ANGEL) so he called on you. Now your in heaven with grand daddy& grand mom tell them I love and miss them an when GOD calls on me we will all see each other. And please when your looking down give all of us a blessing to look out for each other and bless others as you did uncle you will always be in my heart.
