

Loretta E. Bennett

April 3, 1939 - March 23, 2017

Loretta E. “Lo” Bennett was the daughter of late Therman and Martha Whitley. She was born and raised in Camden, NJ and moved to New Haven, CT in 1972 to raise her children. Loretta was a professional presser and caretaker for many years. She enjoyed ushering at her church, doing missionary work, playing bingo, and the card game spades. Lo was the “inventor” of the 5000 card game. She was a fashion diva and loved to look good. Loretta was of great class, style, and beauty, and she wore it well. Many may remember her being feisty, sharp with her tongue, yet fun and loving to be around. In 1989 she relocated to Seattle, Washington and became a resident there for over 30 years. Due to her untimely illness Lo came back home where she transitioned to her final resting place. She was received with loving and open-arms, and got the best around the clock care a loved one could ask for. Loretta is predeceased by her late husband (William Thomas Bennett II), grandsons, (Clinton Thomas Bennett and William Thomas Bennett IV). She leaves to mourn her daughters, Pamela D. McKoy (Rodriguez) and Stephanie U. Bennett, sons, William T. Bennett III and John F. Bennett, her grandchildren, Gregory T. Bennett, Erica S. Bright (Omari), Andrea N. Lewis (Danny), Andrew J. Barnes, Amanda G. Dixon (Omar), Treyvonne M. Mckinnon, Lamar McKoy, John F. Bennett Jr., Xavier McKoy, Essence Bennett and 30 great grand children. She also leaves to mourn 4 sisters Margaret (James), Gwendolyn, Renee (Raheem), and Charlotte, and 1 brother, Joseph Sr., all of Camden, NJ and a host of relatives and friends.
