“ Extending my deepest sympathy on the loss of the patriarch of the Ellison family. I remember meeting "Pops Ellison" as a young boy growing up in the Hill on Arch St.. Whenever I ran into over the years, it was a pleasure to engage in some small talk. He always was a kind soul to me who had the gift to gab. May the comfort of God help you through this difficult time. Farewell and may he R.I.P.

“ My sincere condolences to my family, The Ellisons. When you lose a loved one, it brings sadness and memories. I am not sad today. I am hurting; but not sad. My Uncle T was a man's man! He understood his role as a husband, father, son, brother, uncle, and friend. He was an adviser, a confidant, a devoted caretaker for his wife and assisted in taking care of his brother -- my dad, Claude Sr. -- when my dad fell ill. Throughout Uncle T's brief illness, I never heard him complain. Uncle T was always smiling and continued to dole out the best advice ever! I love you Uncle and will miss you dearly. I will miss our many talks, our laughs, and our competition to out-talk each other, something our family does very well. LOL. I will always play your song and be reminded that, "It's a man's world, but it ain't nothing without a woman or a girl!" #Rest on Uncle! #You've Done Well #4ever #4always #4love
