“ Mahogany would always tell me to stand up for myself. She would give me advice when I needed it and just listen when I needed someone to hear me. We had so much fun working together. To her family I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Hey Hag-n-daz I'm gonna miss seeing that adorable chocolate smile of yours always happy and full of life it was such a blessing that even when I left Eastern Circle I thought I would never see you again only for years later I became your neighbor again on Derby Ave. I will always remember how gifted and talented your hands were and you brought life to everyone you met I never since I knew you and we where teens when we met I never heard anyone say a bad word about you and that's something you don't usually hear in this town but you were a great person I can't even believe I'm writing this but I love you and you knew it your son is gonna have a special angel sitting on his shoulder leading him on the right path not only cause you were a good mom but you had a beautiful soul I love you so much sending hugs and kisses all the way to heaven where you are resting in Gods loving arms ❤️❤️❤️
