

Malcolm O. Privott

November 20, 1987 - June 9, 2021

It's with great sorrow that we acknowledge the passing of Malcolm Owen Privott, Jr. (Lil Malcolm, Juggy, Scooter), He passed away on June 9, 2021. Malcolm was born on November 20, 1987. He was survived by his parents Sharon Chisem White (James) of Cromwell, CT, and Malcolm Owen Privott, Sr of Middletown, CT. He is also survived by his daughter Christina Privott of Cromwell, CT, and his maternal grandparents Izzy Chisem of Colchester, CT, and Barbara (Stallings) Chisem of Middletown, CT. He was predeceased by his paternal grandparents Alice Rankins Privott and William Privott.

He leaves behind five sisters, Monique Privott-Lacey (Ryan) of Middletown, CT; Marlayna Privott of Cromwell, CT; Sherell Simms of Hartford, CT; Taijii Dudley-Smith (Abdullah) of Bronx, NY; and Destiny Rogers of Meriden, CT. He has two brothers, James White, III of Middletown, CT, and Justin White of Cromwell, CT, and three nieces and one nephew. Malcolm was a graduate of Middletown High School in Middletown, CT.

Malcolm enjoyed fishing. He loved being around his family and he loved making them laugh. Some of his friends have said that he was the life of the party. Malcolm loved to eat and he would make his Grandma Privott laugh so hard when he would ask her "Grandma, can I have all the biscuits?" He meant the whole pan. His favorite sayings were "Come on be a bro." He was interested in high-performance import cars. He was a great brother and friend. He loved his daughter Christina. He had a huge family that loved him and kept in touch often. He will be remembered and loved by all.

“ An infectious smile, loving heart , an amazing personality and a will to be better for his family and self. Those will be just some of the things I will remember forever along with memories throughout the years. Especially those with Buff and the gang. You never want to believe your last Goodbye will be a final one. But I thank you Malcolm for always being you no matter where we ran into each other you always made sure to greeted me with a smile and love. “Heyyyy Cuz”. Well Lil cuz Thank you for never not taking a moment to chat it up with me. Auntie Said 33yrs blessed years God gave to her and with that comes comfort. I know Auntie and everyone here going miss you but you made so many great memories with all of us and there’s still alittle piece of you here your precious gift your babygirl my little cuz. God makes no mistake but no goodbye is easy. Him and Charlie and all the other loved ones I know greeted him and that smile with open arms. Every sunshine ☀️ you all know it’s him smiling down with that great Big BrightElectric smile. Prayers to you all. Rest in Paradise.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss of Malcolm. I worked with him and he was my "work nephew" always calling me "Auntie" and coming up to hug me every time he saw me, and always telling me about his Daughter. He was so proud of her. My heart is broken. I will miss you and your hugs Malcom. RIP "Nephew". ❤️
