

Margaret Dixon

September 22, 1939 - April 7, 2024

Ms. Margaret Dixon, is a native of Nichols, South Carolina. She was born on September 22, 1939, to the late Gary Gause and Maxine Thompson. She departed this earth on Sunday, April 7, 2024, for her eternal rest with our Heavenly Father.

Margaret was the beloved wife of Harvey Dixon and together they birthed three beautiful children Steven, Jacqueline and Latrice Dixon. Margaret was a longtime New York and New Haven resident after relocating from South Carolina early in life. In New York Margaret worked at AR Knitwear as a factory worker. In New Haven she was a dedicated employee of Covidian formerly known as US Surgical of North Haven, CT before retiring in 2012.

Margaret was a faithful member of Immanuel Missionary Baptist Church of New Haven. She served on many ministries of the church such as the Pastor's Aide Committee, Fashion Show Committee, General Committee and was the Church Anniversary Dinner Chairperson for many years. Margaret really enjoyed serving the Lord. Some of her favorite pastimes were listening to music "oldies but goodies" or watching a "good story" on tv as she would call it. Margaret enjoyed shopping, traveling and most of all spending time with her family.

Margaret was predeceased by her husband Harvey Dixon. Her Mother Maxine

Thompson. Her Dad Gary Gause. Her Step Dad Lindsay Thompson. Her brother Carl Williams and two sisters, Hazel Lee and Barbara Jean Murphy. Her Nephew Wesley Murphy and Special Family Friend Kevin Cato.

Margaret is survived by her three children, Steven Dixon of Norfolk, VA, Jacqueline Dixon (Reginald Greene) of East Haven, CT and Latrice Dixon of New Haven, CT. Her two brothers Lee-Marvin (Bessie), Williams and James (Bertha) Williams both of New Haven CT. Her four grandchildren Mark Anthony Gooding, Ke'Shaunt (Tyshawna), Dixon, Marcus Gooding and Ameia Cato. Her three great-granddaughters K'Nyla, Kyrie and Serenity and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends to whom she cherished.
