

Marjorie Carlton

April 28, 1941 - March 7, 2023

Marjorie Elaine Carlton was born in New Haven, Connecticut on April 28, 1941. She was raised by her late parents Mr. Harold and Alma Adams-of New Haven, Connecticut.

Margie graduated from Wilbur Cross High School in New Haven, Connecticut.

She had two children from her first union, Alphonso Flemming Jr. and Kenneth Flemming Sr. Margie worked at Sargent Corporation as a machine operator for over 27 years before her retirement.

Margie had a passion for helping others, especially family in need. As a single parent Margie continuously opened her home up to family in need of a place to call home.

She loved traveling and just spending time with her husband, kids, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Margie was a faithful and devoted member of Grace Chapel Church of the Living God in New Haven, Connecticut. Her spirit and belief in God were instrumental in her dedication in doing God's will while she was able. In her spare time Margie enjoyed writing poetry and watching her favorite judge shows. She lovingly fulfilled her duties as a wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, church member and a friend. She was preceded in death by her loving and devoted husband, Mr. John C. Carlton Sr. and leaves to mourn her children Alphonso (Debbie) Flemming Jr. and Kenneth (Evelyn) Flemming Sr. Her grandchildren Jermana Davis, Martell Flemming, Tetell Flemming, Ashley Flemming, Whitney Flemming and Kenneth Flemming Jr. Great grandchildren Connell Mclaurin, Mya Flemming, Adriana Flemming, William Dawson, Kennedy Bolin, Brayden Flemming, Lana Hewlett, and Emery Walker, Great-Great Grandson CJ Mclaurin, honorary daughters Joy Johnson (Larry) and Paula Stevenson, and several nieces and nephews. Margie was also preceded in death by her great granddaughter Zaruiah Flemming.

Oh I was so surprised to see this in the paper. Margie and I along with many and many when grandma's school and troop middle school together we. We all stayed in touch off and on through the years Marjorie always had a kind and gentle Spirit. Growing up we were all tomboys and played many sports together. I will cherish those fond memories. Rest in peace , and family may God strength and your fond memories sustains you. Warmly, Marion “ My deepest and sincerest condolences to the family of one of my mom and my aunt’s dearest friends. Margie, Mamie, and Minnie. I found it rare and beautiful to see a friendship like theirs that spanned from elementary school. She was definitely one beautiful soul, and I’m so glad that I got the privilege to say that I knew her.
