

Marlin Ritter

March 27, 1972 - March 29, 2021

Marlin J.R. Ritter, age 49, former resident of New Haven died on the night of March 29, 2021. He attended Hillhouse, during the time he called the Westville area his home. Marlin worked a multitude of driving jobs in this city and his current home including Metro Taxi, SCSU, and Uber. He spent the most time at Winkle Bus Company where he was able to build bonds with students and teachers alike. He took his last breath in Orangeburg County, less than 2 hours away from his current home in Florence, South Carolina.

Marlin's death was preceded by father Rotha James Ritter; brother Markease Ritter; maternal grandparents Harold Bradley and Louise Woods; paternal grandparents Rotha and Josephine Ritter.

He will be survived by 2 daughters Capri & Kiara Ritter and his only son, Marlin J.R. Ritter Jr, as well as grandson Kyler Ritter. He also leaves his mother Diane Bradley Ritter, nieces Kiarre & Emarre Ritter, aunts/uncles, cousins and friends.

Mr. Ritter was a simple man, easily satisfied by joys such as music, quality films, and enjoying the company of his loved ones. He enjoyed cars and would never pass up a long distance drive.
