“ I love and miss you my boy, I think about yu all of the time. Sometimes it really hurt and sometimes I just laugh at some of the silly things you would say.It is still hard to believe that you are gone and sometimes I am so alone without you but God is good. I know you would want me to keep it moving so that is what I am doing.

“ To the family: sometimes when God does things its not understood. But God knows best and we must continue to trust in him. I had a great opportunity to speak to brother Marlin and even though he was in pain he was still able to smile. May God bless him and keep his family in these difficult and sad times.
