“ Marquita was one of my friends from middle school. This shocked me when i saw it in the papers she was always a sweetheart. Hurts knowing someone my age could go in such a tragic way. certainly opened my eyes. I am sorry for your loss but I Know we gained a great angel.

“ I was very sad to hear about Marquita. I used to work with her at St. Francis Home for Children, and she was a great teacher. She was very quick to show you "the ropes" and always willing to help you whenever you needed it. I admired how well she worked with the girls, they loved playing games with her and talking with her. She was a really wonderful girl, my condolences to her family and friends.

“ To the family, My prayers are with you daily!!!

To Marquita, I couldnt stay too long to say good bye. This was the first going home service I attended since Marcus and I buried our Mother and It wasnt easy.

I'm thankful to know that you're not in pain and you're not suffering.

Carey, stay strong my friend. Please stay prayerful and know that it is ok to cry, it is ok to take some time to yourself and grieve. You may have to take a trip with someone that is close to you to allow yourself some time. In the meantime, I'll continue to pray for your strength!

With Love, God Bless!

“ Dear Nakima & Family;

We were sorry to hear about your loss. The bible tells us to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. We know that your sister is no longer suffering and is finally at peace. Our prayers and thoughts are with you.
