

Marshall Adonis Drayton

May 6, 1993 - August 8, 2020

Marshall Adonis Drayton was born May 6, 1993 to Nydia Padilla-Figueroa in New Haven, Connecticut. At the age of ten he relocated to Baltimore, Maryland with his mother and little sister Brooklynn Jones. He attended Baltimore area schools and graduated from Severna Park High School in 2011. Marshall was a loving young man who loved his family, friends, football and music. He had a promising football career prior to being injured. Marshall's passion for music resulted in him having a promising rap career. He had the opportunity to release multiple songs on an independent label that have now become Baltimore classics.

Marshall Adonis Drayton's amazing personality, selfless ways and giving heart will forever be felt by the many lives he has touched during his 27 years here on earth. He leaves behind His Mother, Ms. Nydia Padilla-Figueroa; His Sisters, Brooklynn Jones, Tayla Drayton, Kali Drayton-Hodges; His Brother, Joshian Padilla; His Maternal Grandmother, Zoraida Acvedo-Figueroa; His Maternal Aunt and Uncle, Yadira Padilla, Joshian (Shatoya) Colon; His Maternal First Cousins, Shelby F. Brewer, Breanna Stevenson, Lebron Stevenson, Genesis Stevenson, Justice Colon, Journey Colon; His Nephews, Dominic Brown, Jayce Tyler Washington; His Niece, Dallis Justice; and a Host of Family and Friends.

On August 8, 2020 at the Age of 27 Marshall left this earth to go to a place where his soul could be at eternal rest. We are eternally grateful to God for having gifted this world with the life of Marshall, the unsung musician whose name will live on for generations to come.

Cemetery Details

Private

Previous Events

Calling Hours

AUG 19. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (ET)

Trinity Temple Church of God in Christ
285 Dixwell Ave
New Haven, CT 06511
(203) 776-8179

Funeral Service

AUG 19. 11:00 AM (ET)

Trinity Temple Church of God in Christ
285 Dixwell Ave
New Haven, CT 06511
(203) 776-8179

Tribute Wall

“ Marshall Adonis Drayton

October 09, 2023 at 06:14 AM

“ Marshall if I would have known you would onoh be here for 27 years I would've spent every minute of it with you. My baby you lit up the world & I will never be the same without you in it my love sleep peacefully don't worry about us we'll all be together again.

Forever your Little sister, Tayla 💙

Tayla Drayton - August 15, 2020 at 10:52 PM