

Mary L. Darden McCoter

February 1, 1906 - February 1, 2008

Mary L. Darden McCoter passed away on Wed. Jan 23, 2008. She was born in Pitt County, NC on February 1, 1906 to the late Wyatt and Lizzie Blount Darden. She leaves sons Willie Darden Jr. and Johnnie R. (JC) McCoter and her daughter Pastor Luedean Spears all of New Haven. Sisters Novella Royster and Katherine Mays of Greenville, N.C. and brothers Bishop Henry L. Darden of Ayden, N.C and Jessie Darden of Dover, DE. 24 grandchildren, 33 great-grandchildren and 32 great-great grandchildren and host of relatives and friends. She is predeceased by her husband John Mark McCoter, her daughter Mary Brown and her siblings Oscar Darden, James Darden, Sidney Darden, William Darden, Viola Worthington, Maggie Darden Ruebell Hammond, Gussie Best and Martha Howell. Internment in Evergreen Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

“ Mary L. Darden McCoter

October 09, 2023 at 06:14 AM

“ Aunt Sis, since you've gone on to Eternity, I'm not late with this! Pastor Jessie Bryant and Family Thank you for the Blessings you bestowed upon us during your life time! We miss you dearly! Deacon Curlean Bryant, Seattle, WA

curlean bryant - May 09, 2011 at 01:25 PM

“ My heart felt condolence goes out to the Darden,McCoter,and Blount families.Mother McCoter will be missed.Soft spoken,kind,and gentle.She and I would talk on the bus,I was her driver at the Goodwin-Levine Adult Day Center.Mrs.McCoter and I wolud talk of my family members then she would engage the other clients to sing songs like "this little light of mines".She will be missed.God bless you.Cousin Diana Williams-Johnson.

diana williams-johnson - January 31, 2008 at 10:54 PM

“ *JC, Rosa & Family:
My heartfelt sympathy go out to you both and your families, may you all find comfort in the Lord and know that others are thinking about you at this time.*

Desiree Jones - January 31, 2008 at 04:07 PM

GM

“ My condolences to the McCotter, Darden and Blount families at the passing of Cousin Mary. She was very pleasant, sweet and kind. I will remember the days we worked together at Kane Furniture Store and in passing at Pitts Chapel here in New Haven.

Love, Lady "G" Cousin Gloria Hazard Miller

Gloria Hazard Miller - January 28, 2008 at 04:48 PM