“ *I send my deepest condolences to Mary's family. I had the honor and privilege of knowing her. Eighteen years ago at 19yrs of age Mary took me in under her wing (yes her wing, Angel on earth) as a new CNA at Apple (then it was Harbor View Manor) as she did to countless other aides. All of the skill I've learned in 18 years stems from the foundation she set for me. Mary was not only a genuine care giver but she was a dear friend to so many. I hope all of your wonderful memories of her comfort you now and always.
God Bless

“ Cherie so very sorry to learn of your mother's passing, you have my deepest condolence, I only knew your mom for a short while and even in that span of time she boldly expressed her love for our mutual Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. You two had such a close mother and daughter bond, be strong and know with assurance our Father God is able to sustain you in times like this. Donna McCoy-Roberts
