

Mary Lou Smith-Crowder

May 12, 1938 - May 22, 2018

Mary Lou Crowder was entered into this world on May 12, 1938 by the late Daisy & Tommy Smith in the small town of Slocumb, Alabama. Mary was brought into a household with very religious parents where she attended church faithfully every Sunday. She was blessed to be raised in a household with 6 other siblings. With whom 5 of the siblings are deceased by the names of Malcolm Smith, Wille Smith, Gladys Boykins, Annie Mel Stover, and Ruth Bryant, may God rest their souls. Nolavie Pujoue is her last remaining living sibling. After school Mary moved into the city of Stamford, CT where she was able to start her own family. Mary gave birth to three boys by the names of Clayton Crowder JR, Curtis Crowder, and Anthony Crowder. While raising three boys she worked full time at a company named Circon-Acme where she afterward retired from. As well as working full time and she attended church religiously at Union Baptist church where she was an advocate member and a member of the church choir. Along with her busy life she was also raising two of her grandkids by the names of Ebony Crowder- Etienne and Anthony Crowder Jr. Mary was such a sweet soul and has blessed everyone's life that she has come into contact with. Her hard work, dedication to her family and positive attitude towards life will always be remembered. Mary is survived by her three sons Clayton Crowder JR, Curtis Crowder & wife Neicy Crowder, Anthony Crowder & wife Mariam Crowder of Norwalk, CT; her grandkids Latavia Crowder, Ebony Crowder-Etienne, Anthony Crowder JR and Carlos Lopez; greatgrandkids E'nya Mary Etienne, Nyla Wilson and Roman Anthony Crowder. A host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends. May god bless Mary and her family. One of the most difficult things to deal with in life is the death of a loved one. Even for the Christian, death is a part of life. Unlike they that do not believe, the Christian has a blessed hope – that is the return of the Savior Jesus to catch up His Church and bring them to eternal life with Him and God the Father in Heaven.
